

Equine reproduction practitioner's day

"Assisted reproductive technologies in horses (ARTS): from research to daily practice"

Pisa, Sunday, July 3rd, 2022

PROGRAM

08.30 Registration

08.45 Welcome greeting

SESSION 1: Management of donors and recipients in ET program - Chair: Duccio Panzani

09.00-09.45 Management and AI of the donors to maximise the outcome of an ET program
Miguel Blanco

09.45-10.30 Management of the recipients to maximise the outcome of an ET program - Tom Stout

10.30-11.00 Espresso break

SESSION 2: Technical aspects - Chair: Tom Stout

11.00-11.45 Embryo Transfer: is the Wilsher technique preferable to conventional ET?
Anthony Claes

11.45-12.30 Frozen and cooled embryos: methods and pregnancy rates - Katrin Hinrichs

12.30-14.00 Lunch

SESSION 3: ARTS in practice - Chair: Katrin Hinrichs

14.00-14.45 Production of foals of the desired gender: preimplantation sex diagnosis versus insemination of the donors with sex-sorted spermatozoa - Carolina Herrera

14.45-15.30 OPU/ICSI program and the role of the practitioner - Cesare Galli

15.30-16.45 ARTS in practice: learning through failure and mistakes - Fernando Riera

16.45-17.15 Espresso break

SESSION 4: Foals from old mares and the effect of the recipient - Chair: Giovanna Lazzari

17.15-17.45 Foals production from old, sub-fertile mares - Elaine Carnevale (on line)

17.45-18.30 The importance of recipient choice and management for offspring development and sports performance - Pascale Chavatte-Palmer